MOTION TO CONFIRM APPOINTMENT OF APPRAISERS FOR VICTORIAN HOME

Civil No. 2:18-cv-00892-TC

Judge Tena Campbell

Jonathan O. Hafen, the Court-Appointed Receiver, hereby submits this Motion to Confirm Appointment of Appraisers for Victorian Home.

INTRODUCTION

The Receiver is the owner of a Victorian-style home located at 734 East 200 South, Salt Lake City, Utah (the “Property”). Although the Property appears to be residential, it has been renovated for both office use and event hosting. As such, the Receiver requests an order confirming the appointment of three independent commercial appraisers as required by 28 U.S.C. § 2001 to assist the Court and the Receiver in valuing the Property for potential sale. As with other commercial properties, the Receiver proposes that two of the appraisers will provide restricted appraisals and the third will provide a standard appraisal report. Once this Court has agreed to the appointment of the appraisers and their respective appraisals are completed, the Receiver will file a notice of the proposed sale of the Property and will subsequently submit a motion for a hearing to confirm a proposed sale of the Property consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 2001.

MEMORANDUM

This Court’s November 27, 2018 Order Appointing Receiver and Staying Litigation, Dkt. No. 54 (the “Order”), authorizes and directs the Receiver to take control of Defendants’ assets and provides: “Upon further Order of this Court, pursuant to such procedures as may be required by this Court and additional authority such as 28. U.S.C. § 2001 and 2004, the Receiver will be authorized to sell, and transfer clear title to, all real property to the Receivership Estates.” (Order, Dkt. No. 54, at 15 ¶ 38). The Order also contemplates that the Receiver would employ professionals to assist him in discharging his duties, including financial and business advisers as well as real estate agents:

To engage and employ persons in his discretion to assist him in carrying out his duties and responsibilities hereunder, including, but not limited to, accountants, attorneys, securities traders, registered representatives, financial or business advisers, liquidating agents, real estate agents, forensic experts, brokers, traders or auctioneers;

(Order, Dkt. No. 54 at 5 ¶ 8(F)).

Title 28, Section 2001(b) of the United States Code authorizes a court to order the sale of real property at a private sale if the court finds that the sale is in the best interest of the estate after considering the evaluation of three appraisers appointed by the court (the sale may not be less than two-thirds of the appraised value) and after providing notice of the hearing at least 10 days before the hearing confirming the same.

(b) After a hearing, of which notice to all interested parties shall be given by publication or otherwise as the court directs, the court may order the sale of such realty or interest or any part thereof at private sale for cash or other consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the court approves, if it finds that the best interests of the estate will be conserved thereby. Before confirmation of any private sale, the court shall appoint three disinterested persons to appraise such property or different groups of three appraisers each to appraise properties of different classes or situated in different localities. No private sale shall be confirmed at a price less than two-thirds of the appraised value. Before confirmation of any private sale, the terms thereof shall be published in such newspaper or newspapers of general circulation as the court directs at least ten days before confirmation. The private sale shall not be confirmed if a bona fide offer is made, under conditions prescribed by the court, which guarantees at least a 10 per centum increase over the price offered in the private sale.

28 U.S.C. §§ 2001(b).

The Receiver has identified three professional and disinterested appraisers to provide an appraisal to assist the Court and the Receiver in evaluating the reasonableness of the private sale. These appraisers include: John M. Blaser, MAI, Colliers Valuation, 4505 S. Wasatch Boulevard, Suite 140, Salt Lake City, Utah 84124, (385) 249-5440; Travis Keltner, MAI, Aegis Realty Services, Inc., 5432 S. Woodcrest Dr., Holladay, Utah 84117, (801) 245-0505; and Matthew Limpert, Van Drimmelen & Associates Inc., 774 East 2100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84106,

(801) 536-6476. The retention letters for each appraiser are attached hereto as Exhibits A, B, and C.

As part of this Motion, the Receiver also requests that the Court authorize the Receiver's use of both standard and restricted appraisal reports for the Property. This Court has previously approved the use of restricted appraisal reports for several other commercial properties within the Receivership Estate. Dkt. No. 148. As set forth in more detail in the Receiver's previous Motion to Approve Use of Broker's Price Opinions, Comparative Market Analyses, Restricted Appraisal Reports, or Similar Valuation Procedure, in Appraisal of Certain Commercial Properties, a restricted appraisal report is a valuation of property similar to a standard appraisal report but the information that forms the basis of the appraisal is not included within the document itself. See Dkt. No. 130. The Receiver is confident that the use of a few restricted appraisal reports will provide this Court with information sufficient to assess what constitutes a fair price for the Property, consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 2001(b), while at the same time saving the Receivership Estate $2,200 by avoiding the higher premiums charged for standard appraisal reports.¹ Accordingly, the Receiver requests that the Court authorize the Receiver to engage one of the appraisers to provide a standard appraisal report and two of the appraisers to provide restricted appraisal reports.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Receiver requests that the Court grant this motion by entering an order confirming the appointment of the three appraisers and authorizing the Receiver to utilize restricted appraisal reports for two of the three appraisals of the Property. A proposed Order is attached hereto.
